Legal Education & Access Innovator

david@davidkemp.ai | 469-939-1469 | Greater New York Area

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Innovative legal educator with expertise in integrating AI into law teaching, research, and practice. I teach law students, faculty, and practitioners to use large language models effectively and responsibly. Incorporating proven instructional methods, I ensure learners develop skills that can withstand changes in available tools and technologies. I excel at anticipating and resolving problems independently and in collaborative settings.
